We claim great advantages for the soil of Geneva and vicinity, in the production of Healthy, Long-Lived Trees. This is a matter of great importance to every planter. Not only does the soil here produce trees of superior quality, but the fact that trees grown upon this heavy, strong, rich, well-drained soil are healthier, longer lived, less liable to injury from extreme cold, and more productive than when taken from a light soil. Another very important fact is that being furnished with a more abundant supply of healthy, well-ripened and strong roots, they bear transplanting to a different soil and climate much better.All persons authorized to act as Agents for us, are provided with a written certificate to that effect, and we request that they be required to show their certificates. Stock not infrequently sold by persons without authority, and not furnished from the places giving great dissatisfaction and disappointment. BUY GOOD STOCK OF RELIABLE MEN, and this may be avoided.

JUDGE GOODWIN DESPONDENT.

He Views Cleveland with all a Re-publican's Adoration.

Judge C. C. Goodwin, of Salt Lake City, has been in the city for several days visiting friends. He was one of the pioneers of the west, being a prominent figure in Virginia City, Nevada, when the famous Comstock mines first came in notice. He has, however, for years been a resident of Salt Lake City, and has been prominent in all national questions there as to Mormonism and polygamy. When met last night at the Southern by a Globe-Democrat reporter and questioned on Utah affairs, he objected to a formal interview, but indulged in an informal conversation. Of the President's course on the anti-polygamy bill, which has just become a law through action of time, as the President refused, either to sign or veto it, but held it until it became a law, the Judge said:

COWARDLY ACTION OF THE PRESIDENT.

"The President was in a close place. A portion of his party friends, the Tuckers—Carlisle-Morrison wing, wanted a much more effective bill; the north-eastern Democrats generally, backed by Mr. Lamar, wanted no legislation at all, and so the President tried the old Ulysses dodge, plugged up his ears and steered between the two. It was the most cowardly act of his administration, and his excuse that he feared some features of the bill were not constitutional, reads like a joke when we think of the lawyers whose constitutional doubts we awakened. The fact is, the President has changed his mind since he wrote his first message. Then he thought it would be a good play to simulate indignation over polygamy in Utah. At that time he knew no more of Mormonism than a Sioux Indian does of the nature of the troubles in Bulgaria; but it struck him as a good party play, and he played it. Since then he has been forced to learn something of the situation in Utah. He knows thoroughly well that there is an organized conspiracy there against free government; a huge political machine that under the name of religion is defying his authority and that of Congress and the Supreme Court; but it has been whispered to him that his party may not always be able to keep Dakota out of the Union, and may need three electoral votes from Utah to equalize the votes of Dakota, and so his party fealty is at war with his sense of right, and hence in a dazed way he struggles to believe that if the law-breakers of Utah should be throttled the Constitution might be violated. It is only fair to say that his present position is far behind that of the mass of his party. They are earnest in the desire that Utah shall be Americanized."

A GENTLE VICTORY.

"Of the bill itself," said Judge Goodwin, "even if the Saints decide to take the oath, it will still be an advance, for it takes away woman suffrage and will turn over two or three counties of Utah to Gentile control. If they decline to take the oath the bill will be a transfiguration of Salt Lake Valley in the next few years; because it is the natural center of a rich country as great in area as the German Empire, in the midst of the finest mining region known, and with matters settled in Utah, whenever a man made a little fortune in Eastern Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming or Montana, he would gravitate to Salt Lake and buy a home."—Globe-Democrat.

THE GRAVEYARD CASE.

The Jury Agree After Four Hours' Talk.

The arguments in the Carrigan suit against the Mount Olivet trustees consumed the greater part of yesterday before Judge Zane. Mr. Varian making a strong argument in behalf of Carrigan and against the trustees, scoring them in no light language for the ignorance they manifested of the condition of the burial place of which they were the directors. The jury retired at 3 o'clock, and at 5:30 were still wrangling. The Judge then directed that they hand in a sealed verdict in case they reached an agreement; failing to do which they would have to remain out all night, paying out of their own pockets for whatever they wanted to eat. At 9 o'clock it was learned that they had agreed on a verdict, which will be handed into the court this morning. A rumor was afloat on the streets last night that the verdict was in favor of the plaintiff, he being awarded $500. Of course, it could not be authenticated, and the facts will only be positively known when the clerk reads the mis-sive this morning.

A Watch Stops at the Hour of Death.

The bodies of Willie Teed, Henry Mc-Townley McTigue and Eugene Grestinger, the three choir boys of the Garden City Cathedral, each about 13 years old, who were drowned at Garden City on Sunday, were taken to Brooklyn yesterday and removed to their respective homes, 417 Myrtle Avenue, 385 Clermont Avenue and 85 North Oxford Street. A joint funeral will probably be held from St. Luke's Episcopal Church, in Clinton Avenue, tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Grestinger, the father of one of the boys, said yesterday:

"A strange thing occurred on Sunday about the time my boy broke through the ice. He left his watch home yesterday morning, and it stopped at 2:45 o'clock. It made me feel queer and I was taken so ill that I had to lie down. I said to my wife that I feared something terrible had happened. At 5 o'clock I received a dispatch announcing the accident. His mother was afraid of his going to Garden City yesterday, but I prevailed upon her to let him go."

The exact time of the drowning is not reported, but the boys arrived at the artificial pond in which they were drowned about 2:15 o'clock.—New York Sun.

Belligerent Beaverites.

Beaver is up in arms, but not over the Tucker bill. The town has been divided for about a week, the north part against the south. Men, women and children, with clubs, shot guns and long sticks turned out in mass, to see if they could find any rabbits. The north found and killed 2,123, the south found and killed 2,159, making in all 4,282. No accident occurred, only to Wm. Burt, who received two stray No. 4 shot. He cannot sit down as easily as he could before. Everything went off in fine style. The hunters were conveyed out to the scene in wagons. Boys and girls and some old women enjoyed the hunt. The result will be a fine ball and supper. The hunt was finished on the 5th. We think there are a few rabbits left yet. Some talk of another hunt soon.

BEAVER, March 10, 1887.

Astounding Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boesche's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact, all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada.

Wretched, Indeed.

Are those whom a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeable symptoms indicative of liver complaint. Nausea, sick headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood and loss of appetite, signalize it as one of the most distressing, as it is one of the most common, of man's ills. There is, however, a benign specific for the disease and all its unpleasant manifestations. It is the concurrent testimony of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. Besides rectifying liver disorder, it invigorates the feeble, conquers kidney and bladder complaint, and hastens the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague.

Cure of Bronchitis.

Mr. E. Carey, of Erie, Penn., writes as follows: "I had bronchitis for over two years. My life was made utterly wretched by it. It was cough, cough, cough, until at times I thought I would choke to death. I tried every remedy, it seems to me—some outside, more inside. Now and then I would get slight relief, then back again it would come, worse than ever. Last winter I started using ALL-COCK'S PLEASANT VALLEY COAL and kept them on; I felt better almost immediately, and have kept one on my chest almost ever since, using it as a chest protector. I cannot say too much for them, for I am cured of that disease."

Fire!

The Pleasant Valley Coal makes the quickest, the brightest and the hottest fire, and is the cheapest coal in the market. For sale by SELLS, Buxton &amp; Co., 145 Main Street.

I was troubled with chronic catarrh and gathering in head; was deaf at times, had discharges from ears, unable to breathe through nose. Before the second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm was exhausted I was cured.—C. J. Corbin, 925 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

We cheerfully add our testimony in favor of Ely's Cream Balm as a sure cure for cold in the head, influenza, or catarrh. It is a splendid medicine.—Mrs. Eliza Edstrom, and Mrs. E. Jackson, Terndale, Cal.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., has been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free Trial Bottles of this Standard Remedy at E. C. M. I. Drug Store.
